

65th Infantry Great Facts!!!

- General (Retired) Richard Cavazos
 - Only Hispanic Army Four-Star General
 - Fought with the 65th Infantry in Korea
 - With the 65th Inf., earned Distinguished Service Cross (Army's highest decoration)
- During Korean War, one of the most ethnically diverse combat units in US history
 - 65th Infantry did not just consist of Puerto Rican Veterans
 - 65th Infantry comprised of Mexican-Americans, African-Americans, Filipinos, Virgin Islanders, and several other ethnicities
- Last Recorded Regimental-Sized Bayonet Assault in the Korean War
- Defended the rear-guard of the 1st Marine Division in one of the epic military withdrawals in history and were the last ones to board the retreating ships
- One of the best equipped units entering the Korean War
- Roberto Clemente is the only Latino recipient of the CGM in its 237 year history